

SEATTLE POLICE DEPARTMENT COMMUNITY POLICE ACADEMY STANDARDS

The following list is of the Community Police Academy (CPA) Standards, which are intended to be guidelines during the Seattle Police Department's (SPD) review of applications for citizen admission into the CPA.

The Applicant has:

1. No Violent Crime Conviction.
2. No Criminal Conviction within three (3) years from the date listed on the CPA Application.
3. No Felony Drug Conviction.
4. No Domestic Violence Conviction.
5. No more than three (3) contacts with law enforcement, in which the applicant is listed as a Suspect.
6. Not been listed and/or is being considered as a suspect in an active and/or open criminal investigation, as of the date on the CPA Application and/or during SPD's review of the CPA application and/or during the CPA (if admitted).

All applications for CPA shall be reviewed on a case by case basis. The above standards are intended to be used as guidelines for those within SPD who are tasked with reviewing CPA applicants. All citizen admissions to the SPD CPA are done so at the sole discretion of SPD.
